STAGE STORIES.

Amusement Announcements, Lobby Chat (er)—Odd Bits of Gossip.

A WELL MERITED RECEPTION.

In all probability the most enthusiastic reception ever given to any person within the walls of the Grand in this city was that received by Misses Ruth and Claire Reynolds, who played a two-performance engagement with the Chicago Stock Company last Saturday afternoon and night. At the matinee the house was crowded, and when the curtain arose showing a parlor set with the piano bearing upon the cover the name of "Baby Clare," the audience burst into a volume of applause. Miss Ruth was the first to appear. She is ten years of age, very pretty and as stylish and talented as she is pretty. She sang "Goo-goo Eyes," which was not new to Paris audiences by any means, but which was rendered by this little lady in such a manner that had she continued to respond she would have been singing yet.

Miss Claire, as pretty and graceful a bit of feminine humanity as one would wish to see, next tripped upon the stage, and received a welcome which if anything exceeded that given by Ruth. Baby Clare has a smile upon her round little face which would win the heart of the most stony-hearted old bachelor on earth. Her rendition of difficult airs upon the piano was nothing short of wonderful, considering the fact that the sun of only six Summers has shed its rays upon her curly little head. The cake-walk and sketches of the two were perfect, and the audiences were loth to allow them to depart.

They will reside in Paris during the present week, and next week will join the Keystone Dramatic Company, which recently played a successful engagement in this city.

GUS SUN'S MINSTRELS TO-NIGHT.

Gus Sun's American Minstrels will be the attraction at the Grand to-night. This is one of the oldest minstrel companies on the road, and is generally conceded by those who have seen them to be the best. Manager Porter has been receiving for the past three months copies of newspapers published throughout Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York and other Eastern States, each containing very flattering notices of this company. The company travels in their own $10,000 F. L. Man Palace car and number fifty people, headed by the famous comedian, Henry S. Yorkey, assisted by an able corps of singers, dancers, musicians, acrobats, burlesquers, European novelties, and last, but not least, Mr. Gus Sun, the wizard who has astonished two continents with his wonderful juggling and balancing. The engagement promises to be a record-breaker, and a program of unusual merit.

Seats now on sale at Brooks' Drug Store. Prices, 25, 35, 50 and 75 cents.

A SPECTACULAR PRODUCTION.

The Cincinnati Enquirer said of "A Romance of Coon Hollow," which appears to-morrow night at the opera house: "If a thing of beauty is a joy forever 'Coon Hollow' must be just lovely, as it is highly delightful splendid houses. The scene showing the band of colored boys and girls in songs and dances fairly brings down the house. It differs from the Pickaninny Band in 'Old Kentucky' and the Rising Sun Roarers of 'Blue Jean,' and is fully the equal of either. Better than this, the play has an interesting and consistent plot, with refined comedy, and the strongly drawn characters have a splendid company to interpret them. The effects are simply magnificent."

"A Romance of Coon Hollow," which has had over six years of unvaried success, comes to Paris, with the same splendid production seen originally at the Fourteenth Street Theatre, New York.

Prices: 25, 35 and 50 cents. Seats on Sale at Brooks'.

CLAY CLEMENT IN "THE NEW DOMINION."

The mere announcement of the fact that Mr. Clay Clement and his excellent company will be seen at the Grand Opera House next Friday night is sufficient to insure a large attendance. Several box parties have already been arranged and it will be one of the social events of the season. Years ago, when Clay Clement was unknown in many cities where he is now a favorite, "The New Dominion" was pronounced a comedy, whose purity and sweetness and gentle humor made it idyllic in its charm, while the Hohenstauffen of the actor was accorded its proper rank as one of the best, most appealing and artistic creations of the modern stage. "The New Dominion" has lost not a whit of its beauty or its interest. Notwithstanding that this will be one of the leading theatrical events of the season, the prices will be only one dollar for dress circle, 75 cents for parquette and 50 cents for balcony. The advance sale opens Wednesday morning at Brooks'.
